Introducing...

Eunji Kim, an international SAS Honors Program student from South Korea, believes in learning 'outside the classroom'. This summer he spent time in Romania with Professor Davis, a faculty in School of Social Work, and fifteen other students. Having been a former participant, he also worked as a staff member in the 2010 Youth Camp for Asia's Future, a program organized by the Korean government with participants from over twenty-three Asian countries.

Featured Event

Is There a Path to Sustainable Development- And Can the World Get on It?
A Lecture by Jeffrey D. Sachs
Tuesday, October 12, 2010
7:30 PM (Reception to Follow)
Douglass Campus Center, Trayes Hall

Jeffrey D. Sachs is the Quetelet Professor of Sustainable Development and Professor of Health Policy and Management at Columbia University. As Special Advisor to United Nations Secretary-General Ban Ki-moon, he has been one of the leading voices for combining economic development with environmental sustainability. In his role as Director of the Earth Institute, he leads large-scale efforts to promote the reduction of human-induced climate change. Previously, he was Director of the UN Millenium Project and Special Advisor to Secretary-General Kofi Annan on the Millennium Development Goals. For more information, please visit: http://ecologies.rutgers.edu. For more information about Jeffrey Sachs and The Earth Institute, please visit: http://www.earth.columbia.edu/sections/view/9
This lecture will count as an Honors Colloquium Event.

Honors Program Events

SAS Honors Artists Collective Presents: Coffee House-Poetry, Music, -- join us!!!!
Wednesday, October 13, 8 PM - 11 PM
35 College Avenue, College Avenue Campus
For further information contact Jessica Cain, <jesscain@gmail.com>;

Pizza, Laughs, and Finding Your Passion
Monday, October 18, 7 - PM, The Cove, Busch Student Center
Wondering if you are in the right major? Thinking about what else you can do besides becoming a doctor, lawyer, entrepreneur, or teacher? Come hear the about the creative path taken by SASHP Alum, former management consultant, neuroeconomics student (what’s neuroeconomics? Look it up!!!), and comedian Ben Rosenfeld! Please RSVP to hpmentor@sas.rutgers.edu with the subject heading "Discovering My Passion". Free shirts to the first 25 to RSVP and attend! This event will count as an Honors Colloquium Event.

Annual SASHP Student-Run Mini Major Fair – VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!!!!
Wednesday, October 20, 2010
6.30 - 8.30 PM
McCormick Hall, Busch Campus
The SASHP Peer Mentor Program will host its Annual Student-Run Mini Major Fair on Wednesday, October 20. We are looking for volunteers to present their major or minor. If you are interested in taking part, email hpmentor@sas.rutgers.edu with your name, class year, your major and minor, and time available. Please put "MINI-MAJOR FAIR" in the subject line. Refreshments will be served and all presenters will get a free shirt! All majors are welcome! Thank you- we need your help to make this event a success!
Opportunities

Help Plan this year’s Days Without Hate Campaign! Days Without Hate is sponsored by Rutgers Hillel and cosponsored by several other organizations, including Project Civility. There are several ways you can get involved -- tabling, hanging flyers, having your organization table with us, etc.. Please attend our planning meeting this week on Wednesday, October 13, 9 PM at Rutgers Hillel, or email us at dwoh2010@gmail.com if you’d like to get involved.

This year’s Days Without Hate will take place November 8 –November 10. The three day campaign of programming focuses on tolerance, coexistence, and love. It was originally founded in response to the assassination of Israeli Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin, and each year it unites the entire Rutgers community. Programming this year will include a blood drive, bone marrow drive, "Put Yourself in My Shoes" event, and a closing concert.

Bridging the Gap Multicultural Experience: BTG is a weekend retreat at Camp Bernie/YMCA that provides students with an opportunity to discuss issues of race, ethnicity, social class, gender, religion, sexual orientation, and other domestic and global issues, and to build connections with other students at Rutgers. BTG will leave the Rutgers Student Center on Friday, October 29 at 2:00 PM and will return on Sunday, October 31 at 11:00 AM. Spots will go fast!! The deadline for registration is Friday, October 15th. Students will be notified of their registration status during the week of October 18th. To register, visit:
http://multicultural.rutgers.edu/registration_btg.shtml.

Bus Trip to Prudential Center, Newark, NJ with Career Services Staff, Wednesday, October 13, 2010
This trip is for sophomore and junior business and economics majors only. Space is limited to the first 50 students to register at Career Services. A $10 refundable deposit and a copy of your resume submitted to CareerKnight is required to secure your space. Breakfast and lunch will be provided. The bus will depart from Career Services located at 46 College Avenue at 8:45 AM and will return at 4:00 PM. Meet employees and learn more about job opportunities and internships with Prudential. The program will run from 10:00 AM to 3:00 PM. Business attire is preferred. For additional Information call: 732-932-7997 or 732-445-6127.

The Elie Wiesel Prize in Ethics Essay Contest 2011. This annual contest was created to challenge college students to contemplate ethical issues facing them in today’s complex society and to analyze their own perception and thoughts on ethics. Full time juniors and seniors are eligible. Awards are granted up to $5,000. The deadline for the contest is December 6, 2010. For more information, please visit www.eliewieselfoundation.org. For more information, call 212-490-7788, or email Samantha Carlin at samantha@eliewieselfoundation.org.

Are you a JUNIOR majoring in political science, history, economics, or a related department interested in American politics & government? If so, APPLY NOW for the Eagleton Undergraduate Associates Program! We invite students who are at the beginning of their junior year to apply. The program offers an opportunity for a select group of students to study government and politics together during their last three semesters at Rutgers. Through special seminars, a supervised internship, and discussions with governmental officials and political practitioners, Undergraduate Associates explore applications of political science to the practice and processes of American politics. The Undergraduate Associates program provides diverse summer/fall internship opportunities, guest

Upcoming Events

Mon 10/11 Come Out, Speak Out: A Teach-In/Speak-Out Event
Tues 10/12 Community Service Fair
Fri 10/15 Adios Ayacucho (Farewell Ayacucho) by Yuyachkani
Tues 10/19 Steps to Pre-Medical Success: Straight from a Dean
Tues 10/19 From the Science Classroom to the Operating Room
Wed 10/20 SAS Major Fair

Ongoing Events

Fri 10/15 – Sat 10/23 Cabaret Theatre Presents its 1st Production of the Season: A Streetcar Named Desire by Tennessee Williams.
Wed 10/20, Thurs 10/28 Alternative Breaks Information Sessions
Wed 10/13 Project Civility: Fighting, Bullying, Hazing, Stalking... Not On Our Watch!
Opportunities, Continued

Lecturers from the political world, small seminars with engaging discussions about politics and government, a network of more than 700 program alumni, job placement assistance, and opportunities to participate in special events. Applications are available at http://www.eagleton.rutgers.edu/. Visit the Eagleton website at http://www.eagleton.rutgers.edu/ or contact Sarah Kozak (sarah.kozak@rutgers.edu) for more information.

Volunteer Opportunity: The Douglass Project is running their outreach program, 4th Grade Science Stars. Volunteers are needed in Trayes Hall in Douglass Campus Center to facilitate science stations and work one-on-one with the 4th grade students who participate in the science lab for the day. The focus of the program this year will be Environmental Engineering with fun hands on activities for students like solar energy cars and mock oil spill clean-ups. Hours are flexible between the hours of 9:00 AM – 12:30 PM. Volunteers are needed on the following dates:

Friday, October 15, 2010
Friday, October 22, 2010
Friday, October 29, 2010

Email Ife Meadows at imeadows@echo.rutgers.edu if you are interested with your name, contact information and availability dates and times.

Enter Glamour’s 2011 Top 10 College Women Competition
Looking for dynamic young women with leadership experience, academic excellence, and inspiring goals. Winners receive a $5,000 cash prize, recognition in Glamour and a trip to New York City for an awards luncheon. Any woman who is currently a full-time junior at an accredited college or university in the United States or Canada for the 2010-2011 academic year is eligible to enter. The deadline is December 1st, 2010. Students can download an application from glamour.com/contest.

Upcoming Events

Come Out, Speak Out: A Teach-In/Speak-Out Event
Monday, October 11, 2010
11:00 AM – 2:00 PM: Organized Speakers
2:00 PM – 6:00 PM: Open Forum
Brower Commons, College Avenue Campus
An event organized by RU Graduate Students to honor Tyler Clementi and all Queer/Ally Youth Lost to Bullying, Suicide and Violence. Say something. Learn something. Do something. Visit the Facebook page at http://www.facebook.com/home.php?#!/event.php?eid=151999594839304 or on Twitter at #comeoutspeakout. For more information, email comeoutspeakout@gmail.com.

Community Service Fair
Tuesday, October 12, 2010
10:00 AM – 3:00 PM
Morrell Street, College Avenue
Come out to the Community Service Fair to find out how you can get more involved with community service. The fair provides the opportunity to meet with representatives of local, non-profit agencies and campus organizations. Discover new ways to volunteer and learn what it means to truly serve the community!

Adios Ayacucho (Farewell Ayacucho) by Yuyachkani
Friday, October 15, 2010
8:00 PM
College Hall, Livingston Campus Center
Yuyachkani Cultural Collective has been creating activist theatre since 1971, performing in reaction to, and in defiance of, politics in Peru. Adios Ayacucho is a play that tells the story of Alfonso Cánepa, a farm worker leader from Peru who was killed. He returns from the other world and begins a journey to Lima looking for his bones so that he can rest in peace. The program includes a screening of a short documentary and a post play discussion with the artists and Rutgers faculty. In addition to this event, Yuyachkani member Debora Correa will conduct a workshop on Friday, October 15 from 9 AM – 1PM. To register, contact Silismar Suriel at 732-932-1263. For more information, contact Center for Latino Arts and Culture at 732-932-1263 or visit the website at www.clac.rutgers.edu.
Upcoming Events

Steps to Pre-Medical Success: Straight from a Dean
Tuesday, October 19, 2010
9:00 – 10:00 PM
Busch Campus Center, Center Hall
Are you a Pre-medical student? Do you ever wonder about what it takes to get into Med School? If yes, then come, listen, and learn about what it takes to be a competitive applicant for medical school from Dean Heinrich, the Dean of Admissions of UMDNJ-NJMS. You would not want to miss the steps to Pre-Medical Success coming straight from the dean himself!

From the Science Classroom to the Operating Room
Tuesday, October 19, 2010
7:00 – 11:00 PM
Busch Campus Center, Multipurpose Room
A surgeon from Deborah Hospital will be speaking about his experiences in the medical field. EMTs, body fat analysis, blood pressure stations, and more will be available. Free food, free stethoscopes & other medical supplies will be given out! For more information on how to join the club r help with this event, email rutgersdeborah@gmail.com ASAP or contact Apoorva Halikere at 732-439-5282 or at apoorva.halikere@gmail.com. Brought to you by the Rutgers Chapter of the Deborah Hospital Foundation.

SAS Major Fair
Wednesday, October 20, 2010
1:00 – 4:00 PM
Rutgers Student Center, CAC
Got Major questions? Get Major answers. It’s not just for majors anymore! Find out about certifications and careers too!!

Ongoing Events

Cabaret Theatre Presents its 1st Production of the Season: A Streetcar Named Desire by Tennessee Williams. Set in late-1940’s in the French Quarter of New Orleans, A Streetcar Named Desire follows the fading and desperate Blanche DuBois, who finds herself at the doorstep of her sister Stella’s home after losing the family estate. Blanche’s different upbringing instantly clashes with her sensuous and brutal brother-in-law Stanley Kowalski, yet their conflict proves only the surface of her problems. Williams’ classic tragedy exposes the unspoken truths of human interaction, all the while maintaining the warm essence of the South.

Tickets are $7 for students/faculty/staff and $12 for general admission. Cabaret Theatre is located on the corner of Suydam Street and Nichol Ave on Douglass Campus. To reserve tickets please e-mail cabtheatre@gmail.com with the following information: 1) Your full name, 2) The date and time of the performance you wish to reserve tickets for, and 3) The quantity of tickets your wish to reserve. Email any questions to marketing@cabarettheatre.org.

Showdates:
Friday, October 15, 2010 at 8 PM
Saturday, October 16, 2010 at 8 PM
Sunday, October 17, 2010 at 7 PM
Friday, October 22, 2010 at 8 PM
Saturday, October 23, 2010 at 8PM

Note to SASHP students: Attendance at this event can count as an SASHP Colloquium event.

“I'm still a geek on the inside, that's the important thing.”
-Al Yankovic
Contact Us
If you would like to submit an event or announcement to the SASHP newsletter, please send an email - at least one week in advance - to any of the editors. The email should include the date, time, location, and a brief description of the event.

Editors:
Karen Dentler - kdentler@sas.rutgers.edu
Lisa B. Sanon-Jules - lbrock@sas.rutgers.edu
Muffin Lord - lord@sas.rutgers.edu
Ela Joshi – ejoshi@eden.rutgers.edu
Eric Hsu – ehsu@eden.rutgers.edu

Visit SASHP
www.sashonors.rutgers.edu
School of Arts and Sciences Honors Program
35 College Avenue
New Brunswick, NJ 08901
p: (732) 932-7964
f: (732) 932-2957

Ongoing Events

Alternative Breaks Information Sessions
Apply for an Alternative Break Trip and get the chance to work on issues such as education, rural poverty and disaster relief! Attend one of the following Info Sessions for more details:

Wednesday, October 20, 2010
7:00 PM
DCC Meeting Room A

Thursday, October 28, 2010
8:00 PM
SAC Raritan River Lounge

From The Editors: Ela and Eric

Hey HP-ers,

Keep studying hard, those of you with midterms left. Remember: 80% of the exam will be about the one lecture you missed. Hope you enjoyed the newsletter and see you next week.

E & E

Project Civility
Fighting, Bullying, Hazing, Stalking... Not On Our Watch!
A Project Civility Event
Wednesday, Oct. 13, 2010
8:00 PM
Multipurpose Room, Livingston Student Center
Campus violence continues to demand serious attention from students, faculty, and administrators at colleges and universities today, including Rutgers. Recent national events have brought to light the challenges of maintaining safe, welcoming, and civil environments that respect all members of the campus community. Everyone has a right to feel safe while on campus. Join us for a lively discussion among students, deans, and professors about how to respond to violent behaviors on campus and how to build a more civil community.

Moderated by Delia Pitts, assistant vice president for student affairs. Panelists include Joanne Arnholt, dean of fraternity and sorority affairs; Helen Becz, student athlete (crew); Arian Bryant, residence life coordinator; Cheryl Clarke, dean of students, Livingston Campus; Lawrence Farmer, professor of social work, Fordham University; Jason Fredericks, assistant director for student conduct; Rosana Reyes, academic engagement and program planning; and Lisa Smith, violence prevention and crime victim assistance. All panelists are from Rutgers University, unless otherwise stated.