School of Arts and Sciences Honors Program
Honors Ambassador Application
2009-2010

SAS Honors Program Ambassadors are an integral part of the SAS Honors Program recruitment efforts. Honors Ambassadors serve as panelists and luncheon hosts at Scholars Days, help with the Spring Honors Program Phone-a-thon, and may participate in visits to high schools. We sometimes ask Honors Ambassadors to speak with prospective students, parents, and community members regarding the SASHP.

Name: ________________________________ RUID: ____________________ Class Yr: ________

Campus Address: ________________________________ Cell Phone: ______________________

Email: ________________________________ High School: ______________________________

Major (if known): ________________________________ Minor (if known) ___________________

Career Plans (if known): ______________________________________________________________

Please submit the following materials with this application:

• List of College Organizations to which you belong/in which you are involved.
• List of extracurricular interests.
• Short statement explaining why you would like to be an Honors Program Ambassador and what kind of information you think is important to share with prospective students.

All Honors Ambassadors appointed to the program will be required to attend the training in January (if you have a time conflict, please contact us immediately):

New Honors Ambassadors Training
Friday, January 22, 2010
2:30-4:30 pm
Livingston Classroom Building 102, Livingston Campus

Please submit materials by 12 noon on Tuesday, November 24, 2009 to any of the Honors Offices.

If you have any questions, please call either
Dean Fowler at 732-932-2900x105 or Dean Hashemi at 732-445-3206