It is never too early to start thinking about your plans for Housing for the 2011-2012 academic year. The Residence Life Assignments Office anticipates that the demand for on-campus Housing will be extremely high again next year. To live in SAS Honors Housing, you will need to apply for a lottery number. The lottery number application process will begin at the start of the spring semester in January 2011 (exact date TBA). The Residence Life Assignments Office and SAS Honors Program will not accept late requests.

Details about room selection for continuing students will be available on the Residence Life & Housing and SAS Honors Program websites in January. Please note: Douglass Residential College students in the SASHP who want to live in Jameson H should participate in the DRC process. See below for basic information.

For more information, please contact Dean Fowler at gfowler@sas.rutgers.edu.

Douglass Residential Campus Honors Housing
Female SASHP students can apply to live in the Honors house in Jameson Hall, Douglass Residential Campus, between November 15th and December 23rd, and will receive a decision on their application well before the university housing selection process begins in February. Find out where you’ll be living next year before anyone else! If you are interested in living in the Honors house on the Douglass Residential Campus, the link is provided http://douglass.rutgers.edu/housing2.shtml - scroll down to the Living Learning Communities and click on Douglass Honors House – Jameson. You do not have to be a DRC student to apply.

Honors Program Housing Spring 2011 Honors
The SASHP and the Residence Life Assignments Office anticipate that there will be a few vacancies in SASHP housing for the Spring 2011 semester. If you are interested in moving to SASHP Housing, please complete the online Room Change Request form or the Spring Housing Application. (Links are included below.) Please be sure to indicate your preferred building(s) on the form. If you have additional questions about this process, please contact the Residence Life Assignments Office at 732-445-0750 or oncampus@rci.rutgers.edu.

- Room Change Request (for students currently living on campus): http://ruoncampus.rutgers.edu/my-housing/room-change-request
- Spring Housing Application (for students currently commuting or living off-campus) http://ruoncampus.rutgers.edu/my-housing/get-housing/apply-for-spring-2011-housing

Honors Program Housing Sign-Up: 2011 – 2012
It is never too early to start thinking about your plans for Housing for the 2011-2012 academic year. The Residence Life Assignments Office anticipates that the demand for on-campus Housing will be extremely high again next year. To live in SAS Honors Housing, you will need to apply for a lottery number. The lottery number application process will begin at the start of the spring semester in January 2011 (exact date TBA). The Residence Life Assignments Office and SAS Honors Program will not accept late requests. Details about room selection for continuing students will be available on the Residence Life & Housing and SAS Honors Program websites in January.

Please note: Douglass Residential College students in the SASHP who want to live in Jameson H should participate in the DRC process. See below for basic information. For more information, please contact Dean Fowler at gfowler@sas.rutgers.edu.

Honors Program Announcements
SAS Honors Ambassadors applications are available now, and the deadline for submission is Monday, November 29 at 5:00 PM. For an application, go to http://www.sashonors.rutgers.edu/index.php?option=com_content&task=view&id=398&Itemid=86. The SASHP Honors Ambassadors are an integral part of the SAS Honors Program recruitment efforts. Honors Ambassadors serve as panelists and luncheon hosts at Scholars Days, and speak with prospective students, parents, and community members regarding the SASHP. If you have questions, please contact Dean Hashemi at mhashemi@sas.rutgers.edu or Dean Fowler gfowler@sas.rutgers.edu.

Rutgers Against Hunger
Remember to donate food! Green Bins are located all over campus, including the HP Office at 35 College Ave. For information, please visit http://rah.rutgers.edu/.
Opportunities

Capital City Internship Program
The Capital City Internship Program provides students a semester of life lessons, work experience, and an insider’s view of New Jersey State government, politics, and journalism. Eight students will be selected to spend Fridays in Trenton where they will intern in a government-related office and attend lunchtime seminars with a diverse group of NJ leaders from government, business, journalism, and politics. In addition, students will learn to produce a professional resume, write memorandum with clarity and brevity, and gain an understanding of responsible personal finance. To apply, email your resume and a short personal statement describing your interest in the program to James Boyd at boyd@oldqueens.rutgers.edu

Global Medical Brigades @ Rutgers University -- Are you interested in volunteering abroad during summer break, in setting up a Medical Clinic in Panama, and in gaining hands-on medical experience including examining and diagnosing patients while helping an under-served community? If so, send an email to rutgers.gb@gmail.com.

Institute for Women’s Leadership Programs
Institute for Women’s Leadership’s (IWL) leadership programs are now recruiting for Fall 2011! The Leadership Scholars Certificate Program is a selective 19-credit interdisciplinary program that explores women’s leadership and contributions to social change. Leadership Scholars benefit from small seminars, career-building internships, and advising and mentoring. For more information contact Sasha Taner at sdwood@rci.rutgers.edu or 732-932-1463 ext. 642.

WINGS, the Women Investing in and Guiding Students Mentoring Program, is an eight-month mentoring program that pairs students with successful female professionals at Deloitte, Johnson & Johnson, Inc. and Wachovia Bank, allowing students to explore a field of interest with a one-on-one mentoring relationship. For more information contact Connie A. Ellis at ellisc@rci.rutgers.edu or 732-632-1463 ext. 691.

CLASP, the Community Leadership, Action & Service Project, offers a five-week summer internship with a community organization, a weekly social justice seminar, potential to earn 3 course credits, and a stipend for food & transportation costs. For more information and questions, contact Cynthia Gorman at csgorman@eden.rutgers.edu.

The Elie Wiesel Prize in Ethics Essay Contest 2011
This annual contest was created to challenge college students to contemplate ethical issues facing them in today’s society and to analyze their own perception and thoughts on ethics. Full time juniors and seniors are eligible to compete. Awards are granted up to $5,000. Deadline for submission is December 6, 2010. For more information, please visit www.eliewieselfoundation.org. To contact the Elie Wiesel Foundation, call 212-490-7788, or email Samantha Carlin at samantha@eliewieselfoundation.org.

Project Civility Essay Contest - $1000 Prize!
Project Civility, The Daily Targum, The New York Times, and the Offices of the Dean of Students and Undergraduate Education are sponsoring an undergraduate student essay contest on "civility" during the 2010-2011 academic year. All essays submitted for the contest will be reviewed by a panel of Rutgers faculty, staff, and students. Three winning essays will be selected, and excerpts will be published in The Daily Targum in Spring 2011.
- First Prize: $1000; Second Prize: $300; Third Prize: $200
- Deadline: December 1, 2010
- Winners Announced: February 1, 2011
For more information, join the public site "Project Civility Essay Contest" on Sakai or visit http://projectcivility.rutgers.edu. Questions? Contact Michelle Brazier, 2-8404 or mbrazier@rci.rutgers.edu

Artistic Submissions Wanted for the Triple-A Expo!
PACT for Autism (Peer Awareness, Compassion, and Tolerance) presents: the Triple-A Expo! Artistic submissions (photography, drawings, paintings, vocal and instrumental talents, and more) are now being accepted to display at this charity fundraiser, the "Autism Awareness Art Exhibition," to be held on Tuesday, November 30, at the NJC lounge at the Douglass Campus Center. To sign up, submit artwork, or learn more, please e-mail Tal Grebel at PACTforAutism@gmail.com.

Upcoming Events

Mon 11/22 Doctor’s Night
Mon 11/22 Indulge Yourself in a Taste of Networking
Tues 11/23 Open Mic Night for World AIDS Awareness
Tues 11/23 Time Management Workshop
Mon 11/29 Phi Sigma Pi Follow Up Rush Event
Wed 12/1 Sustainable Communities: A Good Idea! A Panel Discussion on the Importance of Sustainable Development
Thurs 12/2 Global Poverty: What Are Our Obligations? A Lecture by Peter Singer
Sun 12/5 Mason Gross Performing Arts Center Presents: Egyptology

SASHP & The Big Chill
Join the SASHP Student Advisory & Programming Board in one of our newest traditions- The Big Chill! This charity event will be held on Saturday, December 11. Sign up on the website (www.bigchill.rutgers.edu). Register with our group, SAS Honors under Open Teams. Please then either bring a toy directly to the Big Chill or you can drop off $10 by TUESDAY, 12/7 with Dorene Pardun, SASHP Office, Nelson Bio Labs Room A110; we’ll buy the toy for you. Details to follow! Run/walk with us, and bring a friend!
Opportunities, Continued

Student Volunteer Council (SVC) On-Going Volunteer Opportunities
SVC has some great on-going volunteer opportunities including opportunities at the New Brunswick Public Library, Highland Park Food Pantry, Highland Park Teen Center and Youth Empowerment Services. If interested visit: http://www.surveymonkey.com/s/SVC_Ongoing to fill out an application and learn more.

LIVE. LEARN. INTERN.
June 5 – July 30, 2011. Sponsored by The Fund for American Studies and held at Georgetown University, the LIVE. LEARN. INTERN. programs combine substantive internships and rigorous courses for academic credit. Internship placements are available in Politics, Public Policy, International Affairs, Journalism, Communications, Public Relations, Corporate Business, Government Affairs, Nonprofit Sector, and Community Service. Applications will be accepted on a rolling basis until March 3, 2011. Students are encouraged to apply for the early deadline of December 3, 2010 to receive a 5% discount on the tuition balance as well as priority internship placement. For more information and an online application, please visit www.DCinternships.org or contact Mary Connell, Recruitment and Admissions Director, at mconnell@tfas.org or 202.986.0384.Special scholarship consideration for honors students

Collaborative Search Research Study This is an opportunity to participate in a research study investigating collaborative search. This study requires a team of two; participants must sign up in pairs. Both participants in a team should have worked on some project before, e.g. a class assignment. The Study will involve using an experimental online system called Coagmento while surfing the Web together. It will be conducted in a computer lab in School of Communication & Information (SC&I) on College Ave campus. Your participation will take about one hour. The study will involve using search engines to look for information on the assigned tasks. All participants will be paid $10. The best performing participant will also win an iPod Shuffle. To participate in this study, please visit http://www.infoseeking.org/labstudy_fall2010/signup.php and submit your request. For further information, contact Professor Shah, School of Communication & Information, at (732) 932-7500, ext. 8240.

Would you like to be a representative of Rutgers University? The Scarlet Ambassadors, employed by the Office of Undergraduate Admissions, are much more than a group of tour guides, they are representatives of the University. We are looking for enthusiastic students with a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0. You will be trained to give 1-hour long bus tours, walking tours of campus, and can be called upon to give special tours to VIP visitors. If you are interested in applying to join the Scarlet Ambassador Team, email Amanda Hardie at hardie@ugadm.rutgers.edu.

**************************

HAPPY THANKSGIVING FROM ALL OF US TO ALL OF YOU
Upcoming Events

Monday November 22, 2010 – TONIGHT!

Doctor’s Night
9:00 – 10:00 PM
Busch Campus Center, Room 120C
If you are considering a career in medicine or research in neuroscience, join Alpha Epsilon Delta Health Pre-Professional Honor Society as we host Dr. Shabbar Danish MD, neurosurgeon & professor at Robert Wood Johnson University Medical School (and a Rutgers College Honors Program grad!). Dr. Danish will discuss Parkinson’s disease, brain cancer, novel treatments such as knifeless surgery, and research in epilepsy & neurophysiology. He will also talk about the road to becoming a neurosurgeon. Learn about the challenges and rewards of being a doctor! Get your questions answered!

Indulge Yourself in a Taste of Networking
7:00 - 9:00 PM
Student Activities Center, Raritan River Lounge, CAC
Looking for an internship, job, or just exploring a career field? Join IABC @ Rutgers at their business & communication “A Taste of Networking” networking event. Register at IABCatRUTGERS@gmail.com with your name, year & major. Space is limited!

NEXT WEEK…..!

Monday, November 29, 2010

Phi Sigma Pi Follow Up Rush Event
8:00 - 9:45 PM
BCC Room 174
Have you been looking for a way to get involved on campus? Are you interested in meeting new people, helping others and your community, and learning valuable leadership skills all while keeping your academics in check? Phi Sigma Pi is a co-educational National Honor Fraternity that functions on a tripod of scholarship, leadership and fellowship. We are a unique organization that takes the best attributes from an honor society, a service fraternity, and a social fraternity, and blends them into one group different from all others. If you are interested in learning more, come to this upcoming program! There will be FREE FOOD!

Tuesday, November 30, 2010

Open Mic Night for World AIDS Awareness
7:00 – 10:00 PM
Livingston Student Center Coffeehouse
Join the Student Volunteer Council in a night of food and entertainment at the Livingston Student Center Coffeehouse for World AIDS Awareness. Donations suggested and performers are welcome. If you’re interested in performing, contact us at svc@echo.rutgers.edu. FREE FOOD FOR ALL!!

Time Management Workshop
5:30 – 7:30 pm
DCC - Meeting Room E (Douglass Campus)
Having a hard time balancing school, work, and a personal life? Come and learn how to stay on top of things and get to where you need to be on time.

Wednesday, December 1, 2010

Sustainable Communities: A Good Idea! A Panel Discussion on the Importance of Sustainable Development
8:00 PM, DCC, Trayes Hall, Room B
Students for Environmental Awareness (S.E.A.) is happy to bring you this event, featuring:
- Patrick Hossay, PhD- Stockton College Associate Professor of Political Science and Environmental Studies
- Mayor Jerry Fried- Pioneer of town-wide sustainability initiatives in Montclair, NJ
- Jonathan Phillips- Executive Director of Groundwork Elizabeth, promoting community partnerships for sustainability
- Kevin Lyons, PhD- Director of the Rutgers Purchasing Department, Moderator

To learn more about these speakers and to RSVP, check out the Facebook event: Sustainable Communities: A Good Idea! Catered by Moe’s Southwest Grill

Mason Gross Performing Arts Center Presents: Egyptology
Sunday, December 5, 2010
2:00 PM
Philip J. Levin Theater

“A soured romance is bad enough. But when a loving relationship morphs into a fierce custody battle and one partner’s renunciation of her homosexuality, the wounds are bound to run especially deep.”

The Honors Program has free tickets to this powerful play! Stop by the Honors Program Office at 35 College Avenue to pick up yours! Tickets are first come first serve, and are in limited quantity, so come early!
Contact Us

If you would like to submit an event or announcement to the SASHP newsletter, please send an email - at least one week in advance - to any of the editors. The email should include the date, time, location, and a brief description of the event.

Editors:
Karen Dentler - kdentler@sas.rutgers.edu
Lisa B. Sanon-Jules - lbrock@sas.rutgers.edu
Muffin Lord - lord@sas.rutgers.edu
Ela Joshi - ejoshi@eden.rutgers.edu
Eric Hsu - ehsu@eden.rutgers.edu

SASHP.NL@GMAIL.COM

Visit SASHP

www.sashonors.rutgers.edu

School of Arts and Sciences Honors Program
35 College Avenue
New Brunswick, NJ 08901
p: (732) 932-7964
f: (732) 932-2957