Featured Course
‘Advancing Community Development’
Community-Campus-Corporate Service-Learning Partnership

“Advancing Community Development” is a community-outreach initiative of the Rutgers Civic Engagement and Service Education Partnerships Program (CESEP) to provide local nonprofit community organizations a team of skills-based Johnson and Johnson employees paired with Rutgers service-learning students to jointly develop projects that will help build the organization’s capacity to serve local residents. Students earn 3 credits for this seminar. For more information and to apply, visit: http://engage.rutgers.edu/index.php?option=com_content&view=article&id=96&Itemid=133

Honors Program Events
Quad II Honors House Presents:
Do the Right Thing
Wednesday, November 17, 2010
9:30 PM
Brett Hall Seminar Room, CAC

*Attendance at this film screening can count as an Honors Colloquium event!

Evening of the Arts Coffeehouse
Wednesday, November 17, 2010
8:00 – 11:00 PM
SASHP Main Office, 35 College Avenue, CAC

Join the SASHP Artists Collective for a night of music, poetry, prose, and art at this month's Evening of the Arts Coffeehouse. To sign up for a performance slot, send an email to ac.eota@gmail.com. New performers are always welcome!

Honors Program Announcements
SAS Honors Ambassadors applications available now!
The SASHP Honors Ambassadors are an integral part of the SAS Honors Program recruitment efforts. Honors Ambassadors serve as panelists and luncheon hosts at Scholars Days and speak with prospective students, parents, and community members regarding the SASHP. Applications are due by 5:00 PM on Monday, November 29, 2010. Please Contact Dean Hashemi at mhashemi@sas.rutgers.edu or Dean Fowler gfowler@sas.rutgers.edu with questions. For an application, please visit http://www.sashonors.rutgers.edu/index.php?option=com_content&task=view&id=398&Itemid=86

Project Civility
Ethics in Congress: The Spirit vs. The Letter
Monday, November 15, 2010
7:15 PM
Trayes Hall, Douglass Campus Center

Project Civility Essay Contest - $1000 Prize!
Project Civility, The Daily Targum, The New York Times, and the Offices of the Dean of Students and Undergraduate Education are sponsoring an undergraduate student essay contest on "civility." All submissions will be reviewed by a panel of Rutgers faculty, staff, and students. Three winning essays will be selected, and excerpts will be published in The Daily Targum in Spring 2011.

- First Prize: $1000; Second Prize: $300; Third Prize: $200
- Deadline: December 1, 2010
- Winners Announced: February 1, 2011

For more information, go to Sakai and join the public site "Project Civility Essay Contest" or visit http://projectcivility.rutgers.edu. Questions? Contact Michelle Brazier, 2-8404 or mbrazier@rci.rutgers.edu

Tea with the Dean
Grants, Fellowships, and Awards!!!
Thursday, November 18, 2010
4 PM
SASHP Main Office
35 College Avenue, CAC

Art Casciato, Director of Distinguished Fellowships and Post-Graduate Guidance, will discuss upcoming fellowship opportunities, and strategies to secure one of a variety of prestigious awards.
Opportunities

CESEP Opportunity
We are looking for highly-motivated undergraduates who want to support promising local middle school and high school students to stay on a path towards college. Apply for this two-credit service learning opportunity offered through the CESEP Program that will prepare you to advise and mentor promising 9th and 10th grade Rutgers Future Scholars in the New Brunswick and Piscataway schools. The class will be held on College Avenue every other Wednesday morning from 11:30am-12:50am and will be a combination of guest speakers, readings, case studies, and field work. For an application, please visit: http://engage.rutgers.edu or for more information call Jerome Goings at 732-932-1276. Application Deadline: Thursday, November 18th

Artistic Submissions Wanted for the Triple-A Expo
Tuesday, November 30, 2010
NJC Lounge, DCC
PACT for Autism (Peer Awareness, Compassion, and Tolerance) presents: the Triple-A Expo! Artistic submissions (photography, drawings, paintings, vocal and instrumental talents, and MORE) are NOW being accepted to display at this CHARITYFUNDRAISER, the “Autism Awareness Art Exhibition,” to be held on Tuesday, November 30, at the NJC lounge at the Douglass Campus Center. To sign up, submit artwork, or learn more, please e-mail Tal Grebel at PACTforAutism@gmail.com.

Internship Opportunity - Rutgers Latino Information Network
The Rutgers Latino Information Network is looking for a few advanced undergraduates to work as interns with our research and information project. The RLIN is an innovative model that will aggregate and facilitate all sorts of information on Latinos in the US and New Jersey for public use through a web portal. This will include data on demographics, education, economics, politics, etc. We are seeking a few seniors (advanced juniors will be considered) with strong research skills and an interest in Latino issues for this 3 credit Spring Semester internship. As with all Latino & Caribbean Studies internships this will require a 6-7 hour per week commitment and the production of mid and end of semester reports. We will provide some training in research methods and software use but we are looking for highly motivated students willing to work independently and complete tasks of increasing complexity. Work will involve internet, academic research, spreadsheets, web page content, editing, document production, event and meeting coordination, etc. If you are interested please send your resume and a statement of Interest to Aldo Lauria Santiago (alauria@rci.rutgers.edu) by Nov 15th.

Student Volunteer Council (SVC) On-Going Volunteer Opportunities
SVC has some great on-going volunteer opportunities set up for this semester including opportunities at the New Brunswick Public Library, Highland Park Food Pantry, Highland Park Teen Center and Youth Empowerment Services. If you are interested in volunteering visit: http://www.surveymonkey.com/s/SVC_Ongoing to fill out an application and learn more about these opportunities.

Upcoming Events

Mon 11/15 Global Risk Assessment: The Search for a Common Methodology
Mon 11/15 Breaking the Boxes! Self Perception and Public Perception: How Leaders Define Themselves
Mon 11/15 RUSA Event: The Rutgers’ Budget and the State of Higher Education
Mon 11/15 Advising/Registration Program
Wed 11/17 Public Speaking
Wed 11/17 Hurricane Season with Climbing Poetree
Wed 11/17 Rutgers Speed Networking
Thurs 11/18 Original Black Panthers Speak: A Conversation with Emory Douglas & Billy Jennings
Mon 11/22 Doctor’s Night
Opportunities, Continued

Collaborative Search Research Study
This is an opportunity to participate in a research study investigating collaborative search. This study requires a team of two; participants must sign up in pairs. Both participants in a team should have worked on some project before (e.g., a class assignment). The study will be conducted in a computer lab in School of Communication & Information (SC&I) on College Ave campus. Your participation will take about one hour. The study will involve using an experimental online system, called Coagmento, while surfing the Web together. Each participant will be paid $10 per person ($20 per team). The three best performing teams will also receive $50 per person, $25 per person, and $15 per person additionally. To participate in this study, please visit http://www.coagmento.org/labstudy_fall2010/signup.php and submit your request. For further information, contact Professor Shah, (732) 932-7500, ext. 8240.

Online Search Research Study
You are invited to participate in a research study investigating online search. The study will be conducted in a computer lab in School of Communication & Information (SC&I) on College Ave campus. Your participation will take about one hour. The study will involve using search engines to look for information on the assigned tasks. All participants will be paid $10. The best performing participant will also win an iPod Shuffle. To participate in this study, please visit http://www.infoseeking.org/labstudy_fall2010/signup.php and submit your request. The study has been approved by the Rutgers IRB (#E11-205). For further information, contact Professor Shah, School of Communication & Information, at (732) 932-7500, ext. 8240.

Critical Language Scholarship Program 2011 Application Now Open. The United States Department of State is pleased to announce the scholarship competition for the 2011 Critical Language Scholarship (CLS) Program for overseas intensive summer language institutes in thirteen critical need foreign languages. CLS institutes provide fully-funded group-based intensive language instruction and structured cultural enrichment experiences for seven to ten weeks for U.S. citizen undergraduate and graduate students. Students may apply for one language, and will be placed at institute sites based on language evaluations after selection. Interested applicants should review the full eligibility and application information on the CLS Program website at clscholarship.org. Application deadline is November 15, 2010.

Would you like to be a representative of Rutgers University? The Scarlet Ambassadors, employed by the Office of Undergraduate Admissions, are much more than a group of tour guides, they represent the University. We are looking for enthusiastic students with a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0. You will be trained for giving 1-hour long bus tours, walking tours of campus, and can be called upon to give special tours to VIP visitors. If you are interested in applying to join the Scarlet Ambassador Team, email Amanda Hardie at hardie@ugadm.rutgers.edu.

Rutgers Against Hunger
Remember to donate food! Green Bins are located all over campus, including the SASHP Main Office at 35 College Ave. For more information, please visit http://rah.rutgers.edu/.
Monday, November 15, 2010

Global Risk Assessment: The Search for a Common Methodology
Leslie W. Kennedy, Professor, School of Criminal Justice, Rutgers Newark.
4:30 PM, Alexander Library, 4th Floor Lecture Hall

There have been many efforts in the past to confront the uncertainties of future threats and catastrophes that emerge in public health, in the aftermath of disasters, in controlling crime and terrorism, and in protecting our material well-being. Professor Kennedy’s talk will examine the framework for the study of threats, use cases from terrorism, health, and disasters to show how relevant agencies have addressed these problems through a risk perspective, and discuss the merits of a common methodology for risk assessment.

Breaking the Boxes! Self Perception and Public Perception: How Leaders Define Themselves
6:00 - 9:00 PM, BCC, International Lounge

Leaders come from all different backgrounds and come in all shapes and sizes – don’t let yourself get boxed in. We all fall into the trap of putting ourselves and other people into categories. But as leaders, we must recognize the difference between self perception and public perception. Join us for thought-provoking discussions, fun exhibits, and an interactive runway show that will challenge the way you perceive and present yourself. Don’t miss out! Email Heidi Nicklaus at epic@iota sigma beta.org for more information. Food and refreshments will be served. Presented by: Iota Sigma Beta Leadership.

RUSA Event: The Rutgers’ Budget and the State of Higher Education
7:30 – 9:30 PM, Livingston Student Center – Livingston Hall

Find out about the Rutgers’ budget and where the money goes. RUSA will give a presentation about the Rutgers’ budget and the state of higher education. Come learn about the spending trends concerning higher education at the university, state, and national level. Curious as why tuition cost $23,466 for an on-campus, in-state student? Come find out. RUSA will be handing out free water bottles at the event. Check out the Facebook page for more information at: www.facebook.com/#!/event.php?eid=128198207236241

Not sure how to register? Don’t know what courses to take?
Join SAS Deans in the Residence Halls for advising/registration programs!
Monday, November 15
9 PM, Davidson Hall, Busch Campus
9 PM, Katzenbach, Douglass Campus

Wednesday, November 17, 2010

Public Speaking
2:00 pm – 4:00 pm
Livingston Student Center – 111
Inform. Influence. Entertain. These are the three keys to effective communication. Learn how to excel at speaking in public. Practice your public speaking skills!

Hurricane Season with Climbing Poetree
7:30 PM, College Hall, Livingston Campus Center

Created by the groundbreaking Brooklyn-based and internationally acclaimed arts duo Climbing PoeTree and featuring a tapestry of spoken-word poetry, video projection, dance, shadow art, and a sound collage of personal testimonies, Hurricane Season addresses social and environmental challenges ranging from the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina to the “unnatural disasters” that disenfranchised communities are experiencing on a daily basis across the nation and around the world. Free Admission! Presented by the Center for Latino Arts and Culture.

Rutgers Speed Networking
7:00 – 9:00 PM, Rutgers Student Center, Multipurpose Room

Thursday, November 18, 2010

Original Black Panthers Speak: A Conversation with Emory Douglas & Billy Jennings
7:30 PM, Brower Commons, Conference Rooms A & B

Emory Douglas was the Revolutionary Artist of the Black Panther Party and subsequently became its Minister of Culture, part of the national leadership. He created the overall design of the Black Panther and the Party’s weekly newspaper. Billy X Jennings is an original member of the Black Panther Party (BPP). He served as assistant to Huey P. Newton (BPP co-founder) in 1971-1972 and managed the main campaign office for Bobby Seale (BPP co-founder) during Seale’s run for mayor of Oakland in 1973. Sponsored by Department of History, Rutgers Center for Historical Analysis, College Avenue Campus. For more information email narratativesofpower@gmail.com

Saturday, November 20, 2010

5th Annual Women of Color Symposium: Contemporary Women of Color: The Identity Spectrum Redefined
9:00 AM – 3:00 PM
Rutgers Student Center, Multipurpose Room

Registration and Breakfast begin at 9:00 AM. Lunch will also be provided along with some great giveaways! Space is EXTREMELY limited. Email rreyes@echo.rutgers.edu for more information.

Monday, November 22, 2010

Doctor’s Night
9:00 – 10:00 PM, Busch Campus Center, Room 120C

If you are considering a career in medicine or research in neuroscience, join Alpha Epsilon Delta Health Pre-Professional Honor Society as we host Dr. Shabbar Danish MD, neurosurgeon & professor at Robert Wood Johnson University Medical School (and a Rutgers College Honors Program grad!). Dr. Danish will discuss Parkinson’s disease, brain cancer, novel treatments such as knifeless surgery, and research in epilepsy & neurophysiology. He will also talk about the road to becoming a neurosurgeon. Learn about the challenges and rewards of being a doctor! Get your questions answered!
More Food Art!

From The Editors: Ela and Eric

Hi HP-Ers,

When the waitress in a New York City restaurant brought him the soup du jour, the Englishman was a bit dismayed. "Good heavens," he said, "what is this?"

"Why, it's bean soup," she replied.

"I don't care what it has been," he sputtered. "What is it now?"

E & E

Contact Us

If you would like to submit an event or announcement to the SASHP newsletter, please send an email - at least one week in advance - to any of the editors. The email should include the date, time, location, and a brief description of the event.

Editors:
Karen Dentler - kdentler@sas.rutgers.edu
Lisa B. Sanon-Jules - lbrock@sas.rutgers.edu
Muffin Lord - lord@sas.rutgers.edu
Ela Joshi - ejoshi@eden.rutgers.edu
Eric Hsu - ehsu@eden.rutgers.edu

Visit SASHP

www.sashonors.rutgers.edu
School of Arts and Sciences Honors Program
35 College Avenue
New Brunswick, NJ 08901
p: (732) 932-7964
f: (732) 932-2957