

When It Rains

RUTGERS SASHP NEWSLETTER

Monday, Oct. 3, 2022

Dear SAS Honors Program Students,

Is there anything better than autumn rain? Sure, rainy days can sometimes feel a bit gloomy, but they're also purely and undeniably cozy. In fact, as I'm writing this opening blurb, rain is softly and soothingly pattering against the sidewalk outside my apartment. My window is cracked open just slightly, letting in the cool, clean air. I'm nestled in my Snuggie (yes, in my household, it's still a thing) with a freshly-brewed cup of hot tea sitting at my elbow. Rainy days are rejuvenating, a natural reset button and, sometimes, a necessary reminder to slow down. Maybe not everything that you wanted or needed to do today will get done. And maybe that's okay. We all need days where we need to slow the pace of our daily lives, and sometimes the rain is a perfect excuse to do just that. Whether that means cozying up for a day inside (I'm all for it) or shortening your to-do list and not trying to be a hundred different places at once, take rainy days to re-evaluate the different ways to find (or create) a silver lining in the cloudy horizon. I'm no meteorologist, but I've been tipped off by my handy-dandy weather app that rain is possibly on the agenda for the first half of the week. So, perhaps you'll have the opportunity to put my precipitation pointers in action. If not, I guess you can just put in your pocket and save it for a rainy day.

Don't take a rain check on checking out these upcoming events and opportunities. Attend the UNMA Global Policy Forum on Africa and the United Nations. Peruse your college and career options at the bi-annual SAS Major & Minor Fair. Sit in on a screening of Rebuilt From Broken Glass at the NJ Film Festival. Snap some selfies and scout out some key Rutgers spots during the Peer Mentor Program's RU Scavenging: Selfie Scavenger Hunt. Sign up for the upcoming SASHP Bus Trip to the Museum of the City of New York.

Warmest Regards,

Noa DeOcampo

Your Newsletter Editor

In this Newsletter:

 UNMA Global Policy Forum

 SAS Major & Minor Fair

 NJ Film Festival - Rebuilt From Broken Glass

 RU Scavenging: Selfie Scavenger Hunt

 SASHP Bus Trip - Museum of the City of New York

SASHP Newsletter

Events/Announcements

UNMA Global Policy Forum

The first UNMA Global Policy Forum of the semester will take place on Tuesday, Oct. 11 @ 4 PM in the Douglass Lounge in the Douglass Student Center. Join keynote speaker, Daniel Malin (a Rutgers alumnus and Programme Management Officer in the United Nations Office of the Special Adviser on Africa) & other featured panelists as they discuss a variety of topics under the theme of Africa and the United Nations. Those interested should register here!

SAS Major & Minor Fair

It's undeniable: deciding on a major (or minor) is one of the most crucial decisions you'll make during your college career. That being said, the SAS Office of Advising and Academic Services is here to help! Stop by the bi-annual SAS Major & Minor Fair on Wednesday, Oct. 19 from 1 PM - 4 PM in the Livingston Student Center to explore different majors, minors and career paths or speak with experts in their fields to discuss academic, career, and research options! Get more info here.

NJ Film Festival

The NJ Film Festival is back for Fall 2022! And while it will be hybrid, there are a number of select in-person screenings right here at Rutgers! One of these screenings will be of the film Rebuilt from Broken Glass - Larry Hanover, THIS Saturday, October 8 at 7 PM at Voorhees Hall. To secure one of the limited FREE passes to this screening, RSVP here by Wednesday, October 5 (by 3 PM). To read a full description of the film, click here.

SASHP Newsletter

Events/Announcements

RU Scavenging: Selfie Scavenger Hunt

Part of the Peer Mentor Program? You might want to get in on the action with the RU Scavenging: Selfie Scavenger Hunt! Explore the landmarks of the Rutgers campuses with your mentor/mentee and snap some selfies together for the chance to win prizes! Find location checklists on the PMP Instagram or Canvas page and submit your selfies here by Sunday, Oct. 9 @ 11:59 PM.

Only open to SASHP Peer Mentors & Mentees*

SASHP Bus Trip

Mark your calendars! The SASHP is planning a bus trip to the Museum of the City of New York on Saturday, Oct, 29. Included is a guided tour of Food in New York: Bigger Than the Plate, an exhibition that examines the challenging nodes and networks of the city's food systems. You'll also have access to visit all other exhibitions at the museum on your own. RSVP here and pay the $5 event fee by Oct. 26.

Follow Us!

@RutgersSASHP

@RUSASHP

rutgershonorsblog.
wordpress.com

SAS Honors

@RU_SASHP

SASHP NEWSLETTER • SASHP.NL@GMAIL.COM