

Heart-Shaped Candy

RUTGERS SASHP NEWSLETTER

Wednesday, February 13, 2019

Dear SAS Honors Program Students,

When I was a kid, Valentine's Day was my second-favorite holiday. I wore my favorite pink dress to school, wrote cute notes to all of my friends, and gorged myself on heart-shaped candy. In high school, I worked as a florist. Valentine's Day meant spending hours wrapping flowers for smiling customers. This year, the most notable occurrence on February 14th is that it's the day I sign up for housing. Valentine's Day means different things to different people, even at different stages in life. Let it pass by unnoticed, spend it with a loved one, or use it as an excuse to make corny cards for your friends. Even if you don't think the day is memorable, someone else might appreciate a kind gesture. The Doctor Who Valentine's Day card I made for my sister five years ago is still taped to her bedroom door.

Here are some fun things coming up soon. Swing by 35 College Ave for a capstone workshop. Stop in McCormick lounge for Cookie Rush and conversations about healthy relationships. Learn about a leadership opportunity at the Gardner Fellowship info session. Attend the Artists Collective radical revision workshop or cartooning workshop. Connect with other students in your field at the Internship Success Panel. Join the RUCSA for a night of mocktails and painting! Pick up complimentary tickets for a performance at Rutgers. Juniors: learn about professional tools and honors resources at your academic meeting. Show off your artistic side by responding to the Artists Collective Open Call for Art. Apply to the summer program "Creative Walking & Writing in England." Check out the McGowan's Regenerative Medicine Summer School or 8 Week Internship Program.

From all of us here at the SASHP, happy Wednesday!

With warmest regards,
Julianna Rossano
Student Director of Honors Media

In this Newsletter

Events p. 2 - 3

Scholarly Analytic Report Workshop
Cookie Rush and Conversations
Gardner Fellowship Info Session
Artists Collective Events
Internship Success Panel
Mocktails and Painting
Performances at Rutgers
Junior Academic Meeting

Opportunities p. 4

Open Call for Art
Creative Walking & Writing in England
McGowan Summer School and Internship

Rutgers Food Pantry

If you're running low on cash and meal swipes, make sure to get the food you need from the Rutgers Food Pantry. Find out more at ruoffcampus.rutgers.edu/food. The SASHP offices are still accepting Food Pantry donations.

SASHP Newsletter

Campus Events

Happening at 35: Scholarly Analytic Report Workshop

Working on Honors capstone options C (graduate courses), option D (professional graduate program or dual degree), or option E (internships, certificate programs, etc.)? Swing by 35 College Ave for a workshop on writing a scholarly analytical report. Feb 22, 12 - 1 PM at 35 College Ave (SASHP Main Office), College Ave Campus. As you plan your capstone report, please consult the guidelines on the Capstone Sakai. Final 18 - 25 page scholarly report due by May 10 in hard and electronic copy.

Cookie Rush and Conversations

Do you have a sweet tooth? Join the Peer Leader in McCormick and No More for cookies and a conversation about how to have healthy relationships. Feb 21, 7 PM in McCormick Hall Lounge, Busch Campus.

Gardner Fellowship Program in Leadership & Social Policy Info Session

The Lloyd C. Gardner Fellowship Program is a competitive year-long program that gives SAS juniors an opportunity to deepen their understanding of major global issues, to develop strong leadership skills, and to take a prominent role in addressing these issues in the coming decades. Fellows receive a $1000 scholarship and research funds. Join Professor Lisa L. Miller for an info session. Click here to learn more. Feb 21, 3 - 4 PM at 35 College Ave (SASHP Main Office), College Ave Campus. RSVP to honors@sas.rutgers.edu.

Artists Collective Events

Join the SASHP Artists Collective for a writing workshop on radical revision. Bring a piece of writing you're looking to revise, and be prepared to go home with a completely different piece! Feb 17, 4:30 - 5:30 PM at 35 College Ave (SASHP Main Office), College Ave Campus. Can't make it? The Artists collective will also hold a cartooning workshop. Feb 21, 4 - 6 PM at 35 College Ave.

For a full calendar of events, click here.

SASHP Newsletter

Campus Events

Internship Success Panel

Join the SASHP Peer Mentor Program for an Internship Success Panel discussion! Hear from former interns from companies such as Microsoft, L'Oreal, RWJ Medical Center, Gateway to Dentistry, Liberty Hall Museum, NBC News, and more. Come learn about different internship opportunities, resources, and timelines, and for a chance to network with older students in your industry. Feb 22, 2 - 3:30 PM in Livingston Student Center Collaborative Learning Center, Livingston Campus.

Mocktails and Painting

What's a good way to de-stress? Try painting the night away! Join the RU Commuter Student Association for a night of snacks and non-alcoholic drinks with friends while creating your own works of art. Feb 21, 6 - 9 PM in the Douglass Student Center.

Performances at Rutgers

Want free tickets for shows at Rutgers? Stop by 35 College Ave to pick yours up today. Tickets are available for Beethoven Sonatas for Violin & Piano on Feb 14, 7:30 PM at Nicholas Music Center, Douglass Campus and The Movement Project on Feb 15, 7:30 PM at Victoria J. Mastrobuono Theater, Douglass Campus. Count as Honors Colloquium outside events.

Junior Academic Meeting #2

Got questions about the Honors capstone requirement? Want to check in with an advising dean about your plans? Want some free SAS Honors swag? Come to the Junior Academic Meeting to discuss Honors Scholar requirements and senior capstone options, review a thesis project starter, and have a student panel. March 1, 12 - 1:30 PM at Tillett Hall Rm 246, Livingston Campus.

For a full calendar of events, click here.

SASHP Newsletter

Opportunities

Open Call for Art

The SASHP Artists Collective is holding an open call for its show "SASHP Bloom." Works should be 9x11 or smaller. Drawings, paintings, and collages are encouraged. Submit photos of your work following the theme of "bloom" to Megan Atwood at nearforests@gmail.com along with a short artist statement by March 1.

"Creative Writing & Walking in the United Kingdom"

Do you enjoy writing? Walking? Join Professor Paul Blaney for his summer program, "Creative Writing & Walking in the United Kingdom." Explore the English countryside and write creative responses of all genres. Program includes trips to Brighton, the Globe Theater, the Charleston Literary Festival, and the homes of Virginia Woolf and Rudy Kipling. Application due via Study Abroad March 1.

Regenerative Medicine Summer School and 8-Week Internships

Are you interested in a week-long didactic and experiential learning experience addressing the science and engineering related to the multidisciplinary field of regenerative medicine? Check out the McGowan's Regenerative Medicine Summer School! They also offer 8-week internships. Click here for more information and to apply (deadline March 31).

For more opportunities, click here.

Follow Us!

@RutgersSASHP

@RUSASHP

rutgershonorsblog.wordpress.com

SAS Honors

@RU_SASHP

