

Sleep On It

RUTGERS SASHP NEWSLETTER

Monday, February 25, 2019

Dear SAS Honors Program Students,

Let's face it: since we've entered college, we've all had to make some tough decisions. I needed to decide who I want to live with, what I want to major in, and whether or not it's time to finally stop wearing my high school lacrosse sweatshirt. These decisions were difficult to make, and I spent many hours on the phone with my mom talking over my options. When I use logical reasoning, I usually find myself making arguments for both sides. When I try to listen to my heart, I find that my feelings change every few minutes. But I think I've finally mastered a course of action for when I'm stuck between two options: I gather all of the information I can, talk through my issues with someone I trust, and sleep on it. I usually have the answer when I wake up.

Are you considering law school or being pre-law? Check out the Careers in Law panel. Join Rutgers Africana Studies TODAY! for a talk on Paul Robeson: "Lincoln University, PA, Somerville, NJ, and the Making of Paul Robeson." Join the Center for Middle Eastern Studies for a screening of the documentary The Judge. Business and economic students are invited to attend a talk by Grant Murphy-Herndon, second year analyst in the Markets Group of the New York Federal Reserve. Juniors: learn about honors resources and requirements at your academic meeting. Show off your artistic side by contributing to the SASHP open call for art. Take advantage of the summer program "Creative Writing & Walking in England." Submit your research to the Columbia Undergraduate Science Journal for a chance to be published.

From all of us here at the SASHP, enjoy the week!

With warmest regards,
Julianna Rossano
Student Director of Honors Media

In this Newsletter

Events p. 2 - 3

Careers in Law Panel

Lincoln University, PA, Somerville, NJ, and the Making of Paul Robeson

The Judge: Documentary Film Screening and Discussion

Talk by Grant Murphy-Herndon

Junior Academic Meeting

Opportunities p. 4

Open Call For Art

Creative Writing & Walking in England

Columbia Undergraduate Journal of Science

Rutgers Collegiate Ethics Bowl

Do you enjoy debate or addressing moral dilemmas? Join instructor Aaron Rabinowitz and other students in becoming a part of the Rutgers Collegiate Ethics Bowl team. The team meets Fridays at 6 PM. For more information, email adr122@philosophy.rutgers.edu.

RUTGERS

School of Arts and Sciences
Honors Program

SASHP Newsletter

Campus Events

Careers in Law

The RU Pre-Law Advising Program will be holding their annual Careers in Law Panel. The panel is comprised of legal professionals and provides an opportunity for students considering law school to explore possible career paths and to network. Feb 28, 8 PM at Eagleton Institute of Politics, Douglass Campus.

"Lincoln University, PA, Somerville, NJ, and the Making of Paul Robeson"

Join Rutgers Africana Studies TODAY! for a talk on Paul Robeson: "Lincoln University, PA, Somerville, NJ, and the Making of Paul Robeson." Dr. Leonard Bethel, Emeritus Rutgers, and Dr. Randall Westbrook, Fairleigh Dickinson University, will reflect on the experiences of Paul Robeson's father in these two historic locales which shaped the life of the esteemed Rutgers alumnus. Contact Kavitha Ramsamy at kavitha@aficana.rutgers.edu for more information. Feb 25, 5 PM at Paul Robeson Cultural Center, Busch Campus.

The Judge: Documentary Film Screening and Discussion

The Center for Middle Eastern Studies invites you to join them for a screening of the new documentary The Judge. It follows Judge Kholoud Al-Faqih in Palestine, the first woman judge to be appointed to a religious court in the Middle East. The documentary provides rare insight into Shari'a law, an often-misunderstood legal framework for Muslims, and pays tribute to Muslim women's leadership. Feb 28, 7 PM at Alexander Library Teleconference Lecture Hall, College Ave Campus.

Talk by Grant Murphy-Herndon

Stop by the class of instructor Brandon Li, SASHP Alumna, for a talk by Grant Murphy-Herndon, a second year analyst in the Markets Group of the New York Federal Reserve. Murphy-Herndon will speak about his experience working during his first year after college, the path he took to get an internship/job at the Fed, and general advice on course selection and targeted skill sets. This is a great networking opportunity for economics majors and RBS students. Talk will be followed by Q&A. Feb 27, 7:40 - 9 PM in Academic Building Rm 2125, College Ave Campus.

For a full calendar of events, click here.

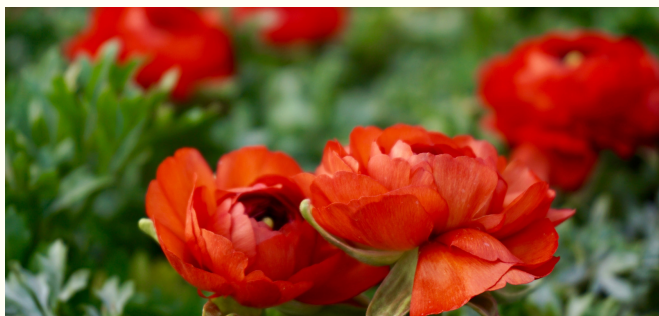

JUNIOR ACADEMIC MEETING #2

HONORS SCHOLAR REQUIREMENTS
SENIOR CAPSTONE OPTIONS
THESIS PROJECT STARTER
STUDENT PANEL DISCUSSION

FRIDAY, MAR. 1 @ 12 - 1:30PM
LIVINGSTON CAMPUS
TILLET HALL, ROOM 246

SASHP Newsletter

Opportunities

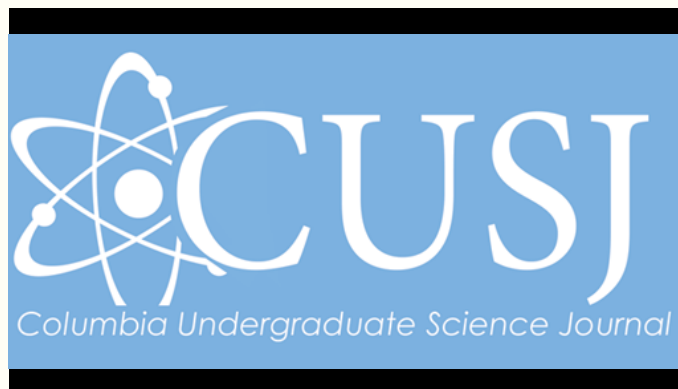

Open Call for Art

The SASHP Artists Collective is holding an open call for its show "SASHP Bloom." Works should be 9x11 or smaller. Drawings, paintings, and collages are encouraged. Submit photos of your work following the theme of "bloom" to Megan Atwood at nearforests@gmail.com along with a short artist statement by March 1.

"Creative Writing & Walking in the United Kingdom"

Do you enjoy writing? Walking? Join Professor Paul Blaney for his summer program, "Creative Writing & Walking in the United Kingdom." Explore the English countryside and write creative responses of all genres. Program includes trips to Brighton, the Globe Theater, the Charleston Literary Festival, and the homes of Virginia Woolf and Rudy Kipling. Application due via Rutgers Global March 1.

Columbia Undergraduate Science Journal

The Columbia Undergraduate Science Journal is a highly selective publication that aims to provide undergraduate students with the opportunity to publish scholarly research. They are accepting submissions of papers on your scientific research. Click here for more information and to submit (deadline March 3).

For more opportunities, click here.

Follow Us!

@RutgersSASHP

@RUSASHP

rutgershonorsblog.wordpress.com

SAS Honors

@RU_SASHP

